"I expected a little help but nothing like this"

APEX SETTLES FAMILY OF NINE

Magnificent. That is how Mr. Bill Orr describes the work of Altona Apexians in finding his family a home, four days after arriving in Australia.

"I expected a little help, but nothing like this," he said in a broad-Irish brogue.

We spoke to Mr. Orr, his wife Lila and his seven children last Sunday at their new home at 6 High Street, Laverton — where for the past three weeks, Altona Apexians have been working day and night painting and getting "ship-shape" the four-bedroom weatherboard house.

From Inverbrook Park (Belfast) in northern Ireland, Mr. Orr had a two-fold reason for migrating to Australia.

"Australia offers a lot more opportunities for the five boys, and then of course there is the civil disturbance in Ireland," he said.

Mr. Orr was on the outer edge of the rioting and was not affected directly, but foremost in his mind was the thought that it could spread.

Worse than war

"I'm old enough (39) to remember the blitzes of World War II, but that was nothing compared to what's going on now," he said.

A truck driver in Ireland, Mr. Orr already had a job interview lined up for the following Monday when we spoke to him.

"My main ambition has been partly fulfilled in having a home to call our own. Now it's up to us to make a success of it."

A friend, Mr. Arnold Napier, first approached Altona Apex to assist Mr. Orr in finding suitable accommodation.

Under a Victoria-wide "Operation Handclasp" scheme, Apex club have placed almost 100 migrant families in homes.

Altona president Mr. George Killingback explained the club was notified three weeks ago that Mr. Orr and his family were virtually on their way.

Six months ago when the scheme was first passed the family had only six children, but in the meantime there was another new arrival — now four months old Lisa.

Bomb scare

"We've completely painted the inside of the house, put in new lino and a fitted bath. We've got a quote for the concrete and a new fence which leaves only the outside to be painted," Mr. Killingback said.

Five Altona Apexians met Mr. Orr and his family at Tullamarine Airport last Wednesday and took them to a hostel for four days until the house was ready.

And Mr. Orr's trip over was not without incident. A bomb scare saw every passenger searched at London Airport. "The plane was held up for two and a half hours," he said.

Swimming artists set for honors

Three members of the Altona Pirouette Amateur Synchronised Swimming Club are likely to represent Victoria at the Australian championships in Sydney next year.

They are Kerry Eustace, who has qualified in both sections of synchronised swimming, and Sue Antonoff and Fiona Roberts, who have both qualified in the routines section.

Five girls from the "Pirouette" took part in competitions at the Melbourne High School pool last Tuesday week. They were Sue Antonoff, Kerry Eustace, Theresa Klampfl, Shirley McCulloch and Fiona Roberts.

Results of the third inter-club competition were: Open solo: Kerry Eustace (Altona) 1, Toni Saunders (Hawthorn) 2, Fiona Roberts (Altona) 3; open duet: Kerry Eustace and Fiona Roberts (Altona) 1, Sue Antonoff and Shirley McCulloch (Altona) 2; open team: Altona 1, Combined 2; Junior solo: Kerry Eustace (Altona) 1, Sue Antonoff (Altona) 2, Christine Turvey (Surrey Park) 3; junior duet: Kerry Eustace and Fiona Roberts (Altona) 1, Sue Antonoff and Theresa Klampfl (Altona) 2; Novice team: Bowman, Thomas, A. Turner and J. Turner (Altona) 1.

The next inter-club competition will be held at the city baths on Saturday, October 17 at 7 p.m. and Sunday, October 18, at 3 p.m. The Victorian championships will be at the Olympic Swimming Pool on November 14 and 15.

Club members meet at the city baths every Sunday at 2 p.m. Any girl interested in joining should contact secretary Mrs. L. Buckingham (398 2848).

Tough fight ahead

Deficient in fast bowlers who could handle a wicket which showed promise of runs aplenty, Altona had little success with the new ball against Myrall.

It was not until Myrall's score had amounted to 56 that Altona captured their first wicket through new player Ian Hughes, who made a brilliant stumping off the bowling of Dave Naughton.

Things continued to deteriorate, however, and it was left to "Wily" Michael and "Sharky" Naughton to share the brunt of Altona's attack in an endeavor to contain a strong batting line-up which by tea was in the strong position of five for 144.

With continued tight bowling and smart fielding Altona were able to dismiss Myrall for a total of 170 — a creditable effort considering poor conditions in the field caused by rain.

Chief wicket takers were D. Naughton 4/66 and N. Michael 2/47, together with three brilliant run-outs which greatly contributed to the collapse after tea.

In failing light Altona suffered by losing three for 38. David Hitchcock losing his wicket on the last ball of the day.

BATTING TRIO SAVE THE DAY

Fine batting by Jim Page (54), Ken Duff (33), and Ken Hanson (29) led a fightback after Altona A Graders had lost three wickets for a meagre eight runs against Royal Park at Grant Reserve on Saturday.

The team went on to the reasonable tally of 160, and the fighting spirit persisted in the attack to see Royal Park succumb to tight bowling and pressure fielding, losing four wickets for 34.

Providing Altona are able to maintain the advantage the way appears open for them to secure a first innings victory at least.

After being none for 28 Altona Club XI slumped to seven for 28, the disastrous collapse being mainly due to some fine bowling by W. Johns, of Williamstown Baseballers, who turned in the figures of 5/15 (inc. two maiden overs).

The situation was retrieved by a dogged batting exhibition by Wally Bruce (27) and Peter Carton (15), to take the final total to 76.

The Baseballer bats followed the initiative given by their bowlers and displayed good scoring shots in amassing 83 runs for the loss of four wickets at stumps.

While Altona trail on the first innings it is not beyond this young and enthusiastic side's capabilities to take out the final points by winning outright.

Altona above all

David Syme & Co. Limited is happy this week to be able to show in a tangible way a belief in the development and growth potential of the City of Altona.

The company has joined in the district business scene by taking over the operation of the Altona Star, a newspaper which has given significant service to the city during its most important development period over the past 18 years.

Under the new management there will be no alteration to the newspaper's policy or aims.

The policy in the past has been one of "above all for the people of Altona and district." There will be no change in this outlook.

The newspaper will continue to be manned by staff who know the area, its needs, its people, their requirements and their interests.

They will continue, as the newspaper has done in the past, to promote Altona's interests and to promote and play an active role in the preservation of the wonderful community spirit prevailing in a young and flourishing and growing city.

Hat-trick?

Altona's Presbyterians captain Tony Paone knocked up 126 against Christ Church, Newport, and capped a fine day with a hat-trick opportunity taking two wickets with the last two balls of the day.

Altona finished with one for 195 declared (Paone 126 n.o., P. Jenkins 38, J. Leigh n.o., Webster 1/25) and Newport are on two for 4 (R. Grinter 4 n.o., Paone 2/2).

With runs coming all the way down the list Altona stood at a satisfactory nine for 135 in the opening game on Saturday before a light appeal stopped play.

Openers Bibby and Joyce took full advantage of Altona being sent in after losing the toss and in a short time had 18 runs on the board.

Soon after Joyce was caught for 17, but then Wayne Patton joined Bibby who, having his first hit for the season, batted soundly before going for 17 with the score at 40.

The score had now slumped from one for 36 to five for 50.

Henry Osowski, a newcomer to the club, and Graeme Hosken came together and although unable to get on top of the bowling were at least adding runs.

Hosken was joined by Cook with the score at 65 and this pair continued to knock up runs.

When Hosken was dismissed from a freakish catch, the youngest member of the team, Paul Jenkins, stroke to the wicket and quickly made his presence felt with solid defence and fine strokes.

Ron Cook at the other end was showing good advantage from his pre-season training and was beginning to hit out before he slightly mistimed a shot and was well caught for a valuable 22.

Jenkins continued to shape promisingly and, when a light appeal was upheld, stood at 25 n.o. after receiving assistance from Neville Helley and Maurie Critchley.

Details: W. Bibby 17, J. Joyce 17, W. Patton 5, R. Evans 5, G. Hosken 9, R. Gray 3, H. Osowski 6, R. Cook 22, P. Jenkins 25 n.o., N. Healey 2, M. Critchley 6 n.o.

STRINGER BACK AS HOSPITAL HEAD

Mr. R. H. Stringer was re-elected president of the Altona District Hospital at their 31st annual meeting last Wednesday night.

The only change in the board of management was that of Mr. E. McGraw who was replaced by Mrs. D. M. Shaw; Dr. J. Laeydman, Dr. P. Frajman, Mr. J. Murphy and Captain H. Pirie, were re-elected unopposed.

Vice presidents are Cr. H. Weaver and Dr. P. Frajman. Representation is still being made to the Minister for Health to grant funds to build a new 400 bed hospital on the Blackshaws Road site.

Altona hospital recorded a record deficit, in a year described by the treasurer as generally satisfactory. Chief cause of the deficit, which has risen from $1038 to $2513, has been the result of sixteen wages board determinations, increasing that expense item by over $19,000 to a total of $38,000.

This has caused wages and salaries to make 70.4 per cent. of the hospital's total expenditure.

Wages and salaries in the 1965/70 period have risen over 100 per cent.

The treasurer also reported in the hospital's annual report outstanding patient debt of over $13,000.

Mr. Stringer said that pending a materialization of the new hospital, a plan has been submitted to the Hospital and Charities Commission for the improvement of existing facilities.

The plan allows for a new nursery room, delivery room operating theatre and staff facilities. The changes are expected to cost in the region of between $55,000 and $60,000.

A small expenditure has been made this year providing office equipment, medical apparatus and patient facilities.

Praise was given in the report to the work done by the ladies auxiliary, who raised $1500 from their various charity functions, which was only bettered by the Altona Apex Club who raised $1794 from their "Miss Altona Apex" and "Garden" competitions.

Board meeting

The Board of Directors of the Altona Club Co-operative Society Limited will meet at the Altona Working Men's Club at 7.30 p.m. on Friday.

A monster White Elephant sale held in Pier Street, Altona last Saturday raised $650 towards the Altona Hospital's $50,000 extensions' appeal.

The sale is the fourth money-raising project staged for the appeal this year and was organised jointly by Altona Apex, Rotary, Lions, ladies auxiliary and Rotaract.

Footscray real estate man Keith Burnham acted as auctioneer for the sale, which included a special cake stall sponsored by the ladies auxiliary and which raised over $70.

Only blemish on the excellent response was the disappearance of a portable loud hailer. Anyone knowing its whereabouts is asked to ring Apex president Mr. George Killingback (399 2063).

Camera club to get new home?

Altona council is considering plans submitted by Altona Camera club for a new building, which would incorporate both camera club and 4th Altona scout group activities, to be built at the corner of Rankin and Linnet streets.

Club president (Mr. J. Merrills) said drawings submitted to the council's general purposes committee, were only proposals at this stage.

"We feel the land could be successfully planned to provide a recreation area which would blend with the surroundings," he said.

"The club, now in its fifth year, has a very strong vigorous membership, and if able to obtain its own premises, will be one of the very few camera clubs in Australia to do so."

On a motion by Cr. Les Crofts the council resolved to ask the City Engineer to investigate the plans submitted in respect to the layout of the buildings and eventual cost to council.

Hello Girls,

Through teens to twenties, nature makes a lot of changes in a girl. Often her body can't cope quickly enough and this may lead to pimples, blackheads, over-oily pores — in short, juvenile acne! Very embarrassing! This problem needs special care and attention, and year in year out, cosmetic scientists try to blend products to overcome this unnatural problem. Cyclax happily announce extensions to their medicated range. Firstly clean skin — essential, oily skin usually likes soap and water cleanliness — you go right ahead and use Beauty Clear Medicated Soap. It contains hexachlorophene, a powerful weapon in the fight against skin disorders. Beauty Clear Anti-Acne Lotion — this lotion contains bacteria fighting medications, washing away excessive oily problems, thus eliminating acne problems. An antiseptic lotion, Beauty Clear Medicated Lotion also contains active ingredients to combat acne causing bacteria. It helps soothe irritation, dries out spots and pimples, aids healing and checks the spread of infection. After washing, apply and allow to dry. Beauty Clear includes a Spot Mask too! This "on-the-spot" mask is just right for the skin that breaks out here and there. Just apply to spot overnight to find a clearer skin next morning. Your basic Cyclax medicated beauty plan — at night:

1. Remove makeup with Beauty Clear Medicated Cleanser.
2. Wash with Medicated Soap and warm water.
3. Apply Anti-Acne Lotion to check oiliness.
4. Once or twice a week — depending on skin condition — apply Medicated Moisturiser or Medicated Night Cream to counter skin dryness.

In the morning:

1. Wash with Medicated Soap and water.
2. Apply Medicated Lotion for day-long protection
3. Use Beauty Clear Medicated Foundation and Powder.

This and a sensible diet will help you to a better beauty.

Mayor opens athletics season

Williamstown Little Athletic track and field events got away to a grand start last Saturday. An official opening ceremony was conducted and the meeting officially opened by the Mayor of Williamstown, Cr. J. Byron.

The mayor was accompanied by the Mayoress and Miss Byron. Other members of the official party included Cr. and Mrs. Whittaker, Cr. E. Smith and Cr. R. Dawes, as well as Mr. P. C. Holman and the Rev. J. Cassidy of St. Mary's, Williamstown.

New club, St. Margaret Mary of Spotswood carried the banner during the march past.

In response to the president, Mr. Ed Stewart, the Mayor wished all clubs a successful season and on presentation of the colors to athletes expressed the hope that all little athletes of the Williamstown Centre would continue with the excellent work of those in previous years.

The next executive meeting will be Wednesday, October 21 at 8.00 p.m.

HOSPITAL PIONEER DIES

A woman who assisted as a mid-wife in the first hospital in Altona some 45 years ago passed away at her home on September 27.

She was Mrs. May Patton, 70, of 1 Sargood Street, Altona.

Mrs. Patton assisted Nurse Cook at the maternity hospital which was not at the site of the present hospital, but in Queen Street.

Mrs. Patton, nee Twining, came to Altona as a bride in the early 1920s.

Her husband, William Norman Patton, (who predeceased her), and his brother started one of the first butcher shops in Altona, also in Queen Street.

Mrs. Patton's late father, Mr. Twining, came to Australia with the late
Mr. William Angliss.

Mrs. Patton lived with her family in a flat above
the stable of Angliss' Bourke Street premises.
Her father used to break in the Angliss horses.

In the early years Mrs.
Patton did quite a lot of entertaining. She was reputed to be one of the youngest grandmothers and then youngest great grandmothers in the district.

When her daughter Thelma died a few years ago, Mrs. Patton looked after her grandchildren.

Recognised as a very kindly lady, Mrs. Patton lived for her "children"
and was very well respected in the community.

Mrs. Patton had been ill for a long period.

She is survived by her son Walter, grandchildren
Maisie (Mrs. Callaghan), Lorna (Mrs. Knight), Cor-

al (Mrs. Nicholson), Alex and Norman, and 15 great-grandchildren.

Her funeral took place at the Footscray Cemetery
last Wednesday.

ALTONA ELDERLY CITIZEN'S CLUB

Altona Elderly Citizens' Club had a cards and games session last Tuesday, and on Wednesday, September 30, the monthly birthday and concert took place. The birthday cake was iced by Mrs.
Lowman, and Mrs. L.
White cut it.

Peggy O'Neil was in her usual good form, and items were staged by members of the choir and community singing groups. Mrs. Hope was the accompanist.

On Thursday cards and games were played and the special effort was won by Mrs. A. Smith and Mrs.
Burgess.

On Monday, October 5, a bus load of members
journeyed to Dandenong.
It was a beautiful day, and a visit was paid to the lace factory. After dinner at a hotel, members visited the Heinz factory and were greatly impressed by
it. The visit concluded with afternoon tea and each of the members received a gift pack from the management.

The next dance is scheduled for October 17.

Altona gets a school library

The Altona primary school committee has decided to build the school a library.

An architect who specialises in school library buildings, Mr. Brian Machine, has been commissioned to prepare the plans and specifications. The estimated cost of the building is $13,500, of which the Education Department will donate $9000.

City Engineer (Mr. R. C. Simmons) said it was very disappointing that funds were not provided for the reconstruction of Millers Road.

The grant which is $3850 less than last year provides funds for the following works:

Millers Road maintenance ($2500), Kororoit Creek Road, maintenance and filling ($7000), Queen Street maintenance ($1060), Merton Street maintenance ($440), Blackshaws Road surfacing between New Street and The Broadway ($2500), Queen Street widening and reconstruction of the pavement between Apex Park and Truganina Swamp outlet drain. ($40,000), Grieve Parade widening and reconstruction of pavement between Pinnacle Road and Doherty's Road ($39,000).

Big first-up score for 'Town

Williamstown opened the new cricket season on a high note when they reached the sound score of two for 143 at the end of the first day's play.

New captain-coach John Peters lost the toss to Geelong skipper Geoff Walker, but was quite pleased at being sent in to bat as it had been his intention to be first at the crease.

There is more than usual interest in the match as the two teams were to contest the final of the west zone last season, only to see Town having to bow down when shocking weather intervened. Geelong went on to become premiers.

Prior to the game former captain-coach Robin Dyson was elected vice-captain, and Doug Gibson takes the important post of players' representative.

Alan Harris and last season's batting success Barry McConnell opened for 'Town and soon blunted the opposition's opening attack.

Barry in particular was severe on both bowlers and had put together a dashing 29 before he fell to a spinner.

Noel McLeod was quickly into stride and produced a fine array of strokes in reaching an entertaining 31 before he was bowled.

The score stood at a solid two for 106 when

"Dizzy" Dyson joined sheet anchor Alan Harris, and tea was taken at two for 140 of which Alan had made a steady 38 and "Dizzy" an entertaining 26.

Steady rain caused play to stop shortly after the resumption, with 'Town well placed to win its opening match.

It was good to see popular Alan Harris being in such good fashion after his disappointing trot last season.

SECONDS

Williamstown Seconds, premiers in VSDCA for the past two seasons, were looking for a bright start when they journeyed to Kardinia Park, but rain stopped play at 2.30 with the score at three for 64.

With Ferris winning the toss 'Town batted and openers Ian McLeod and John Condon opened with the first wicket falling at 21.

McLeod was next to go for a bright 35, including five boundaries.

Williamstown, first innings: I. McLeod, caught 35, J. Condon caught 6, H. Park, caught 16, J.

Roberts n.o. 3, R. Skillen n.o. 1, extras, 3.

THIRDS

Playing Port Melbourne at Murphy Reserve, Williamstown Thirds will need to be in top form with the bat to gain the points.

Missed chances proved costly and allowed Port to reach eight for 182 before rain stopped play at 4.50.

Although chances were missed the ground fielding was good and the younger players concentrated well all day.

Bowling details: Neil Speakman 1/66, R. Duncrow 2/44, P. Tyrrell 0/15, Nev. Speakman 0/22, C. Harris 3/23, F. Bowyer 0/1.

Bowlers under way

The opening of the RVBA pennant bowling season saw a good roll up of bowlers on the new Altona Workingmen's Club green.

The green, built at a cost of $10,000, and situated in Altona Road (next to the Yacht Club) was officially opened by the Mayor (Cr. D. K. Grant) two weeks ago.

Two honors to Newport

Newport 2nd Scout Group had a double celebration last Saturday.

The group won the Gelibrand District Athletic Sports at Soldiers' Reserve, Werribee and senior scout member G. Eichler received his Queen's Scout certificate at Government House.

The curtain rise

Theatrically inclined people take great pleasure in looking at other people's plays.

Sometimes they do it in a very critical way and at other times they find their busman's holiday very rewarding.

During the run of "Five Finger Exercise" I took a night off to go to Viaduct Theatre's production of "Murder in the Cathedral," at St. Martin's Church, Cromwell Street, South Yarra.

This exciting production, in a beautiful setting, was well worth the cold, wet drive from Williamstown.

One of the things that impressed me greatly was the wonderful range of ages in the cast. There were actors in the early twenties up to the middle sixties all working together to make a very memorable production.

Williamstown, at the moment, has many young people available for casting whereas some years ago middle-aged actors predominated and it was difficult to find juveniles.

The fact that Viaduct is close to the city probably helps its supply of actors and we hope that the Westgate Bridge will help solve some of our own problems.

We must find some older actors and actresses to add that extra balance needed in many plays.

There must be in "our town" some older people who would like to take part in a Little Theatre play and others who have taken part in plays in other towns and would like to start again.

Wednesday night at the theatre, 2-4 Albert Street, with Peter Curtis, might be a good time and place to resurrect an old hobby.

Two stars

Two players stood out with outstanding performances in the first round of the Western Suburbs Protestant Churches cricket association last Saturday.

They were Peter Hollings who made 106 not out for Barkly Street Methodist in A grade, and Brian Rich who took 5/11 including a hat trick in Junior North.

Newport starts cricket season

In the opening match of the season at Murrumbidgee, Newport struggled hard to make runs on a fair wicket.
The long grass on the oval plus the light rain, stopped the batsmen getting full value from their shot, and the side was dismissed for 93.
Jack Jarrad batted in fine style for his 39 runs and was well supported by Ron Clarke, 18. Persistent rain finally stopped play at 5 p.m. with the opposition yet to open their account.
Murrumbidgee's second 11 elected to bat on a good wicket at Newport, and raced ahead of the block to be 5 for 14, when rain stopped play at tea. Wicket-takers for Newport were Dick Roberts, 2 for 28, John Stewart - 1 for 23, and Ricky Carrington 1 for 5.
The weather held no problems for Newport's Club 11 batsman in their match against St. Paul's. Everyone contributed runs in a solid team effort of 243, with skipper Bob Colvin 46, D. Smetana 37, Gary Metcalfe 35 n.o., and Bill Humphries 34, all showing good form.
St. Paul's in reply have none for 10, and have a big job in front of them next week.

Altona into semi-final

In a hard cup tie at Green Gully on Saturday, Altona City Soccer Club defeated Ajax 4-2 to move into the Federation Cup semi-final.

The game was a personal triumph for Busting Billy Savage, who scored a hat-trick.

Billy, who had taken over as captain from the injured Ian Hynes, is in top form, and will play a big part in Altona's bid to keep the trophy they won last year.

Altona dominated the mid-field in Saturday's game.

Tommy Keane and Jimmy Ackers were great and 16-year-old Gerhard Althain playing his first game in the firsts, played brilliantly.

He proved he is more than ready for the top side.

Herman and Culbard

had too much pace for the Ajax full-backs, and narrowly missed goaling three or four times. The Ajax backs had no hope against a Billy Savage "rocket", which nearly burst the net.

The "Maroons" kept up a constant pressure, Culbard and Savage had near misses before Herman, using his speed, darted in to crash home goal number two.

Altona eased up a bit and Ajax came into the game. Balish, Ormerod and Copley kept a tight hold on the forwards. Jimmy Ackers crashed in a great shot for Altona, only to see it hit the post.

Savage smacked home the rebound, but the referee, after awarding a goal, changed his mind after a linesman mysteriously flagged for offside. Ajax were a lucky side to be only two goals down at half-time.

In the second half Altona overdid the close passing and paid the penalty as Ajax nipped in and hammered home a good goal.

To show their superiority, Altona put on the pressure. Keane opened up a gap for Savage for goal number three.

Ajax made a desperate bid to get back in the game, and for a while they unsettled Altona. This was especially so when Vella whipped home a great left foot shot which Roberts tried valiantly to palm around the post. It scraped in however, for a great goal.

This shook the "Maroons" and they buckled down to playing top class soccer. Once again Savage rounded off the good work by cracking home his third goal and Altona fourth, to give Altona a great 4-2 victory. Ian Hynes missing from Saturday's line-up, hopes to be fit for next week's semi-final against Yallourn at Frankston City's ground.

This will be a very hard game, as Yallourn have only lost one game all season.
